NEWS RELEASE

TELGIAN CORPORATION SELECTS THE MILLER GROUP AS ITS STRATEGIC FINANCIAL ADVISOR

PHOENIX, ARIZONA, April 22, 2009 - Telgian Corporation - a recognized national leader in the fire protection services industry with Fortune 100 customers, today announced it has selected The Miller Group of affiliated entities comprised of Miller Capital Corporation, a highly respected financial advisory firm and Miller Capital Markets, LLC, a FINRA member investment banking firm, to assist the company with its financial strategy for growth on a national and international level.

Russell B. Leavitt, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Telgian Corporation and a principal in the development of the corporation since 1991 stated, "One of the founding principals of Telgian is to be an advocate for our customers. We found this attribute to be a primary focus of The Miller Group and its Chairman. This meshing of the minds plus access to Rudy Miller and his direct participation with our team for strategic planning sealed our decision when selecting The Miller Group."

James W. Tomes, president of Telgian Corporation said, "We reached out to a number of well known investment banking and financial services companies in a detailed and pragmatic search for a financial advisor and investment banking firm that would work well with our company's philosophical approach to providing our customers unparalleled service and innovative industry options. We concluded that The Miller Group was the right organization to partner with Telgian in developing and implementing a plan for growth beyond our current footprint in the market. Miller's successful Wall Street track record in working with middle-market companies, and their experience working with entrepreneurial management teams was a critical component in our selection process."

Rudy R. Miller, chairman and chief executive officer of The Miller Group commented, "We were immediately attracted to Telgian and its quality executive management team that has in place solid business practices that date back to its founding members, practices that benefit its customers and employees alike. Telgian Corporation is strategically well positioned to take the next step in furthering the growth of its business plan and we look forward to assisting the company in meeting its financial and development objectives."
